NYESS Web Interface

On the left side, there is a vertical menu with the following links: "About NYESS", "Provider Information", "Customer Information", "Contact Us", and "Log into NYESS".

The main content area is titled "Provider Information". It contains the following text:

Welcome to the provider section of the New York Employment Support Services (NYESS) website.

New York State government understands that in order to increase employment among people with disabilities it has to incorporate the tools that disability providers use, into business standards and practices used by candidate recruiting systems. The New York Employment Support Services, (NYESS), is a user friendly job posting system that will facilitate access to qualified job applicants with disabilities. The new system will also simplify the claiming process for things like tax credits, hiring incentives, ticket to work, employment networks along with the myriad of reporting requirements for state agencies.

This new employment system will replace the various current silos of employment-related information and fragmented approaches to assisting in finding employment. The New York Interagency Supported Employment Report (NYISER) will be retired in March, 2012. Providers using NYISER will be required to use the NYESS system.
